Celebrating 45 years
Andona’s Clown Town—Andover’s iconic, annual Rite of Spring—turns 60 this year. This third-weekend-in-May town fixture has raised more money, helped more kids and touched more lives than any charitable event in the town’s history. For three generations the women of Andover and The Andona Society—now just Andona—have been wearing the clown wigs and putting the fun back in fundraising.

Featuring rides, carnival games, music, food, face painting, hair glitter, crafts and clowns, Clown Town is set for Friday night May 20th and Saturday May 21st. The Andover Guide met with Heather Belson, Andona’s publicity chair, to talk about this year’s event. “Traditionally, Friday night is popular with the older kids and Saturday mornings are great for families and the younger children, with kiddie rides, clowns and face painting,” she said.

“People come together from all age groups at Clown Town. You don’t have to be a runner to participate in this event, or support a certain, specific cause. You’re helping all the kids in Andover and having fun,” Heather added.

In addition to Clown Town, “Andona raises money through a Fall Event. We’re moving away from the formal ‘charity ball’ approach to things, so last year’s theme was Celebrating 60 Years of Clown Town Memories. There is also a new winter program called Shine the Light on Andover. We sell kits of tea lights and luminary bags for families to decorate and display outdoors on the evening of the winter solstice. We raised over $2,000 in only the second year of this program,” Heather said.

During their school year fiscal cycle, Andona typically raises about $50,000. These funds are then given directly to Andover schools, youth organizations and individuals through fund request, scholarship and campership programs. One year Andona made an impressive $50,000 donation toward the Andover Youth Center project. Annually they fund five $2,000 college scholarships for high school seniors, including one earmarked for a special needs student. Andona is famous for the thousands in grant money they give away every year to Andover schools and community sports teams for uniforms and equipment. One year South School got snowshoes for their physical education program.

Andona funds summer “camperships” for children of families in need to attend a summer camp of their choice. They sponsor field trips, mentoring programs at West Middle School and Andover High School and a variety of academic, cultural and enrichment clubs. Andona organizes a babysitting course and trains more than 60 middle school students annually.

“Every youth in Andover has been touched by Andona, and many of them find a way to give back,” said Heather. “We got a letter from an early recipient of a scholarship; He told us that just before he started college his father died and he wouldn’t have been able to go to school at all without the Andona scholarship. And in the letter he included a check for the full amount with a ‘thank you,’ so we could help somebody else.”

The name Andona comes from a combination of “Andover” and the Latin verb “to give.” The Andona Society was founded by six Andover women in 1952, most of whom are known today only by their husbands’ names. The times do change, but Andona’s motto remains the same, “to help our young people learn, grow and achieve.”

If that resonates with you, “volunteering with Andona can be an incredibly rewarding experience,” said Heather. “Let’s make sure there is no clown shortage in Andover.” Contact Andona at www.Andona.org.
